

Bell companies operate an "essential facility", and should have to accommodate other ISP firms that wish to purchase access from them. This wholesale provisioning will stimulate competition and be of benefit to the consumers. To not do so would cripple the '96 Telecom Act. Chairman Powell: Please do not sell out to BIG BUSINESS, at the expense of competition and the small businesses of our country.

The baby bells are reconstituting back into Ma Bell with its arrogant and monopolistic viewpoint. It wants to own everything, set higher prices, and discourage competition.

Stop the Baby Bells by keeping competition alive!
